HAPPY NEW YEAR!

This is the time to reflect on the good work that the Nature Club has accomplished. We have volunteered at the Spring Valley events from the Pancake Breakfast in March through the Heirloom Vegetable & Herb Sale, Autumn Fest and sponsored the Holiday Bazaar at Spring Valley. Thanks to the volunteer efforts of the Nature Club members and Board we were able to raise funds to donate to the Bison’s Bluff project, supply scholarships to local schools, fund special programs like Winterfest, host programs of special interest at our monthly Nature Club meetings and supply funding for the Spring Valley volunteer’s meetings! Thanks to all of you who have made our progress possible!

Even though the winter’s winds are blowing, and the snow is falling, spring is virtually around the corner! Once again we have partnered with Baker Creek Heirloom Seeds from Mansfield Missouri whereupon Nature Club can take orders from our members and the community for unique heirloom seeds. Please take some time this winter to peruse their wonderful site and choose the varieties you’d like to grow this year at; www.rareseeds.com There is no minimum order, just write out the variety part number and price of each packet then send your check with order to Spring Valley Nature Club, 1111 E. We will continue taking orders through the May Heirloom Vegetable Sale cut off time, please, order early to be assured of getting the varieties you are interested in. NATURE

So now the shift has begun. For half the year the light from earth’s star has ebbed. Dusks have pushed into late afternoons and dawns have retreated into December. The sun has wheeled low, slit towards the southern horizon, stretching shadows and losing heat filtering through layers of winter air.

Now the sun begins its long climb towards summer. Days grow longer even as winter deepens. The ancients, in their year end celebrations, cheered the triumph of light and life over death and darkness. And the change in light has more to do with life than early man suspected.

Light, as a trigger mechanism affects wildlife and plant life alike. As every gardener knows, asters and mums need a lessening of daylight to come to bloom. Autumn’s blaze of color, seen when leaves are sealed off to shut down chlorophyll factories for the winter, is the response of trees and shrubs to longer nights and shorter days Dwindling daylight trips internal switches and birds begin fall migrations.

Now, as light increases in duration and intensity, biological clocks are rewound, set to ticking towards the vernal equinox. Higher animal classes have a gland at the base of the brain called the pituitary. In some species increasing amounts of light at the retina stimulates the pituitary to produce a hormone that profoundly affects breeding behavior. As a result, raccoons seek mating partners in January. Some non-migrating birds stake out territories in January, pair off in February, mate in March and next in April.

There is a brightness to counterweight the shortness of December days --- December nights. Orion the Hunter dominates the winter sky. Blue white Rigel blazes brilliant from his heel and Betelgeuse sits as a ruby at his shoulder. At sword-center, disguised as a hazy star, is the Great Nebula of Orion, sixteen light years in diameter. Trailing Orion is Sirius, heaven’s brightest star. And Venus shines splendidly.

Starlight and Venus-light shimmer through the clear night air. The light filters through the branches of our backyard spruces and the boughs bask and dazzle in the night glow. The same skies shown on shepherds more than 2,000 years ago when in the east there was seen a star. From a distance comes the sound of caroling.

1974 And Beyond

Spring Valley began as a dream by one of the founders of the Village of Schaumburg, Ellsworth Meineke. Early on he referred to it as “The Spring Valley Dream.” It was he who convinced the Schaumburg Park District and the Village of Schaumburg to work together to acquire and preserve land for Spring Valley. Ellsworth founded the Spring Valley Nature Club in 1974 as a not-for-profit service organization which provides volunteer and financial support for Spring Valley and promotes conservation, nature, and environmental education. The Club sponsors nature programs and teacher field trips, and members volunteer at festivals and fund raisers. We have been working hard since 1974. Won’t you join us?

These words reflect the dedication that the founders felt for the purpose of the Club and the love of the natural world around us. Since the Schaumburg Park District assumed the responsibility of recruiting volunteers, Nature Club’s purpose has evolved to share its love of Spring Valley by offering timely programs that reinforce a more wholesome lifestyle. We have initiated monthly educational programs that instill a comprehension of our ability to lessen our carbon footprint by reducing waste, recycling and reusing our valuable resources. Our monthly programs enlighten us to appreciate our environment and respect its fragile beauty.

We have lessened our impact on landfill waste by eliminating the mailing of our bimonthly News Leaf. We are encouraging members to attend educational programs which teach us the importance of the wildlife around us, the art of using our natural resources wisely and being more self-reliant by advising how to live a more wholesome lifestyle, grow and live more organically and become more self-sufficient.

With the kind donations and assistance from local merchants and organizations, we can exist more ecologically by shopping locally. Some of the wonderful supporters and contributors to the club have been, Roselle Ace Hardware for their support in offering a discount coupon for purchases at their location; Schaumburg Park District for the 1-day Fitness Pass; Platt Hill Nursery for their support and discount coupon at their garden centers; Holistic Art Studio for their discount coupon; Bon Ton Stores for their coupon book for discounts throughout the store. The Bon Ton coupon books are valid for their other stores that are located throughout the US. A listing of their stores is on the membership dues page.

Our wonderful supporters have given us a way to lessen our footsteps by offering valued products and services at discounted prices while saving our energy dollars by reducing the number of miles we travel. Please support our supporters. With their help, we have been successful in raising additional funds to sponsor educational programming for our Club members, Spring Valley Volunteers, and school children and teachers from our community. We have supplied funds for books for Spring Valley’s Library and have sponsored various free to the public programs and events that the Center has offered.

Thanks to you all, and especially our valued Members and Supporters of Spring Valley Nature Club!

Please take time to review all the wonderful benefits we are offering to our members with their Nature Club membership. Won’t you join us?
